

Master of Business Administration

MBA European Management

A Capital Experience

This programme focusses on core issues for companies working in a European environment. The students will be analysing the political, legal, cultural and economic environment of European businesses, evaluating their markets in terms of procurement, finance and sales and drafting new strategies for international competition. Together with fellow MBA classmates and lecturers, all of whom have a strong background in "real-world" business life, they acquire a set of skills enabling to effectively take on executive management tasks.
